Jade Warrior ===== NOW

NOW: The uncompromising new album from art rock experimentalists
Jade Warrior.

Retaining the spirit of adventure of the band's Vertigo years and the sheer beauty and audacity of their Island albums NOW brings the band into the 21st Century with an album of beautifully crafted songs and extreme dynamics. Featuring the silken voice of, original vocalist, Glyn Havard; the melodic flute, percussion and orchestrations of Jon Field and the masterful bass work of Dave Sturt this album is destined to rank amongst the band's finest work and could bring them the recognition that they so clearly deserve.

This is the 14th album release from the band who have been lauded by the likes of Brian Eno, Steve Winwood, Chris Blackwell and a loyal cult fan base from around the world. This is a band who, since the early 70's, have consistently defied expectations and strived for a unique path.

NOW mixes many different styles into an extremely powerful and unique vision ... from the jazz inflections of 'The Fool and His Bride' and the sheer power of '3am Meltdown' to the beauty of 'Tall Trees' and the introspective ballad that is 'Talisman'.

Featuring guest appearances from Theo Travis – sax, Tim Stone – guitar, Jeff Davenport – drums and Chris Ingham – piano.

....with stunning performances and quality production an album for NOW.
